

NEW GOSSAMER

By Isaiah Joshua

Character Bio:

Name:

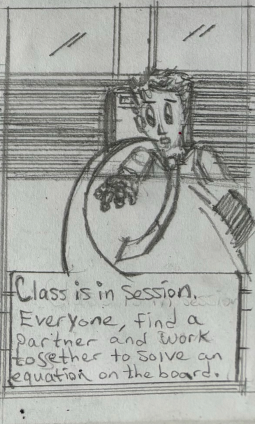

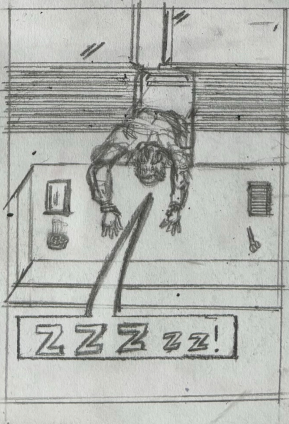

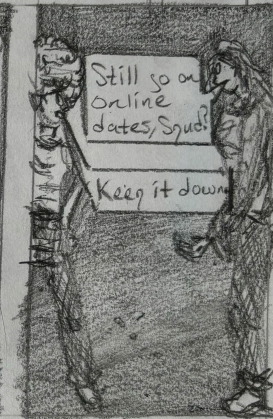

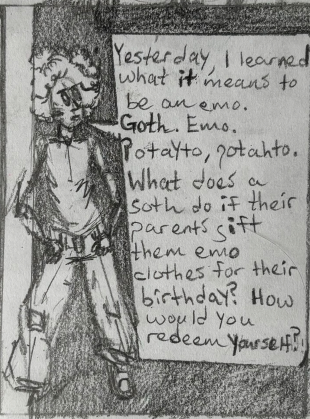

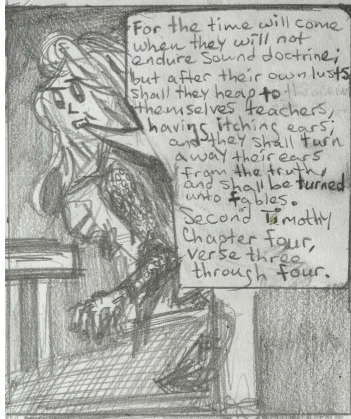

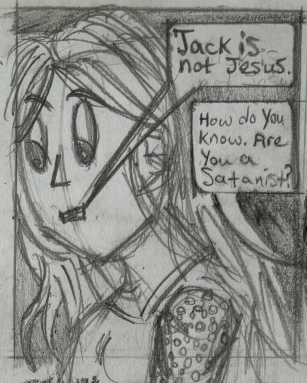

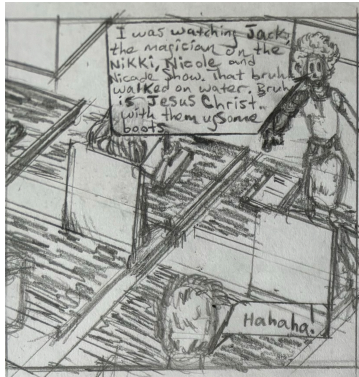

Rain

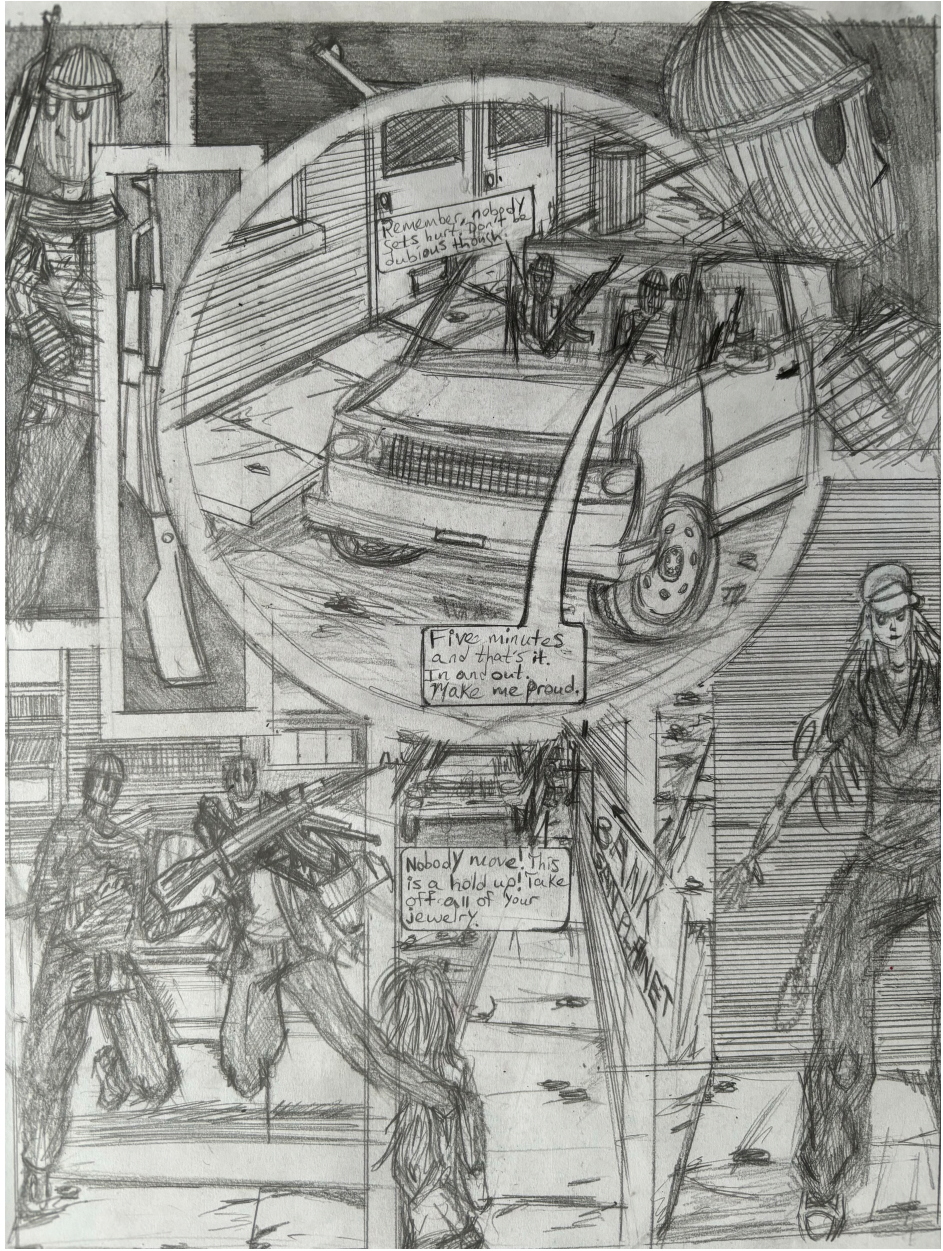

Rain has the aspiration to become the lead singer of a rock band, with Rue and Visi, but she lives in an unsupportive environment.

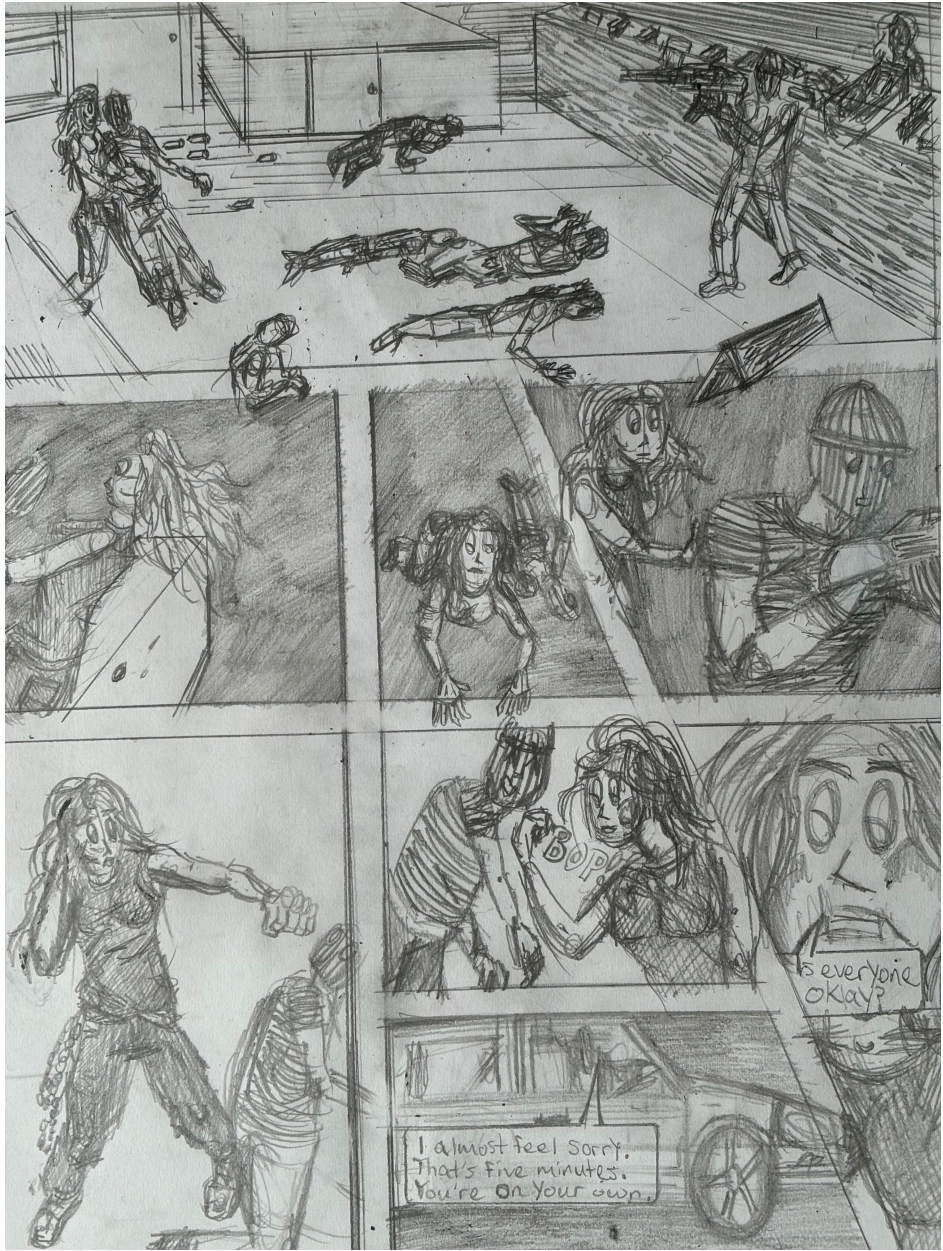

When a commercial of Johnny Gossamer (a reknown film director) pops up on television about an entire town called New Gossamer being built where all goths are welcomed and all of their living expenses will be handled, she cannot resist the opportunity.

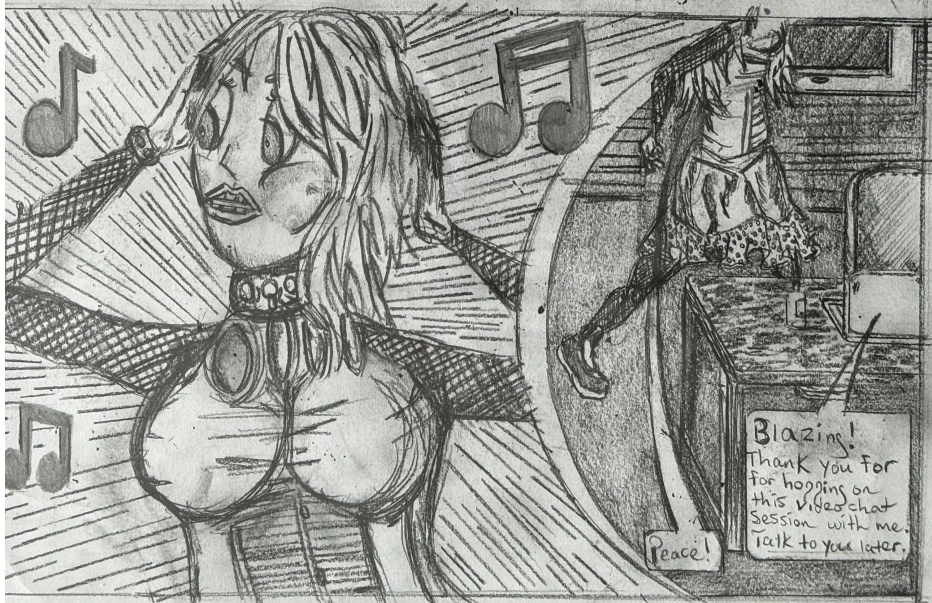

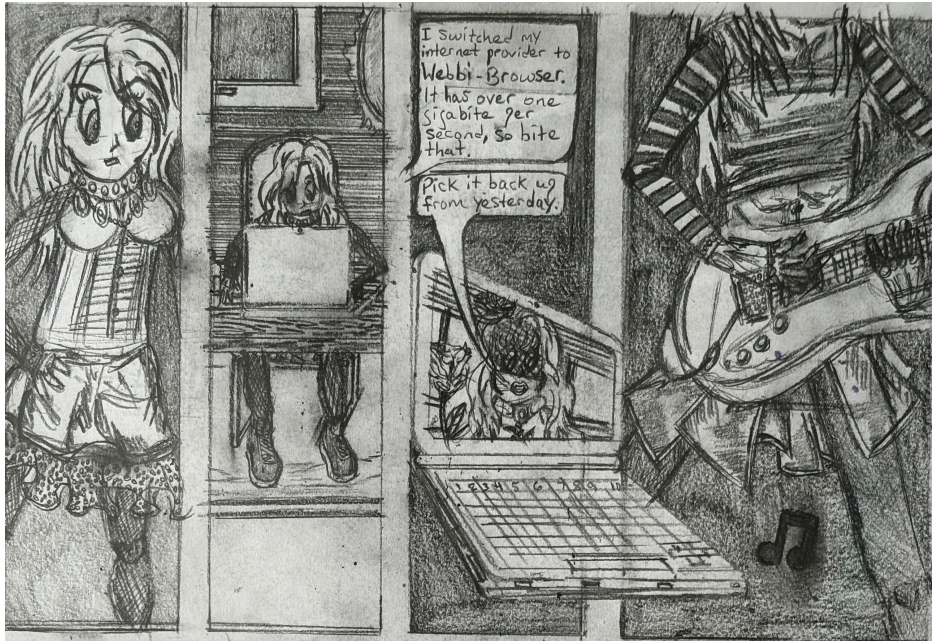

- She is a Christian
- Her best friend is Rue
- She is a hometown hero

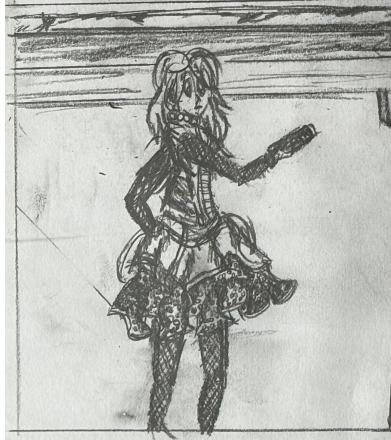

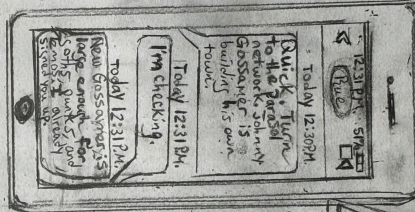

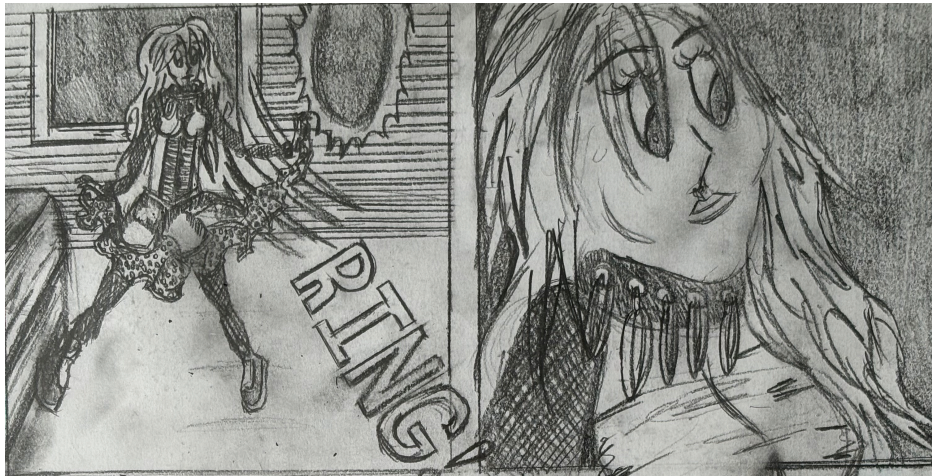

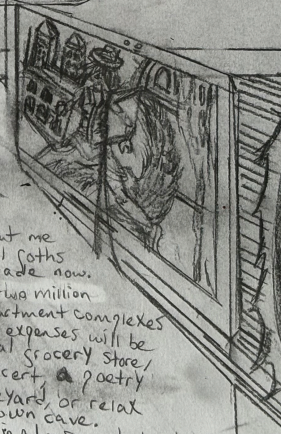

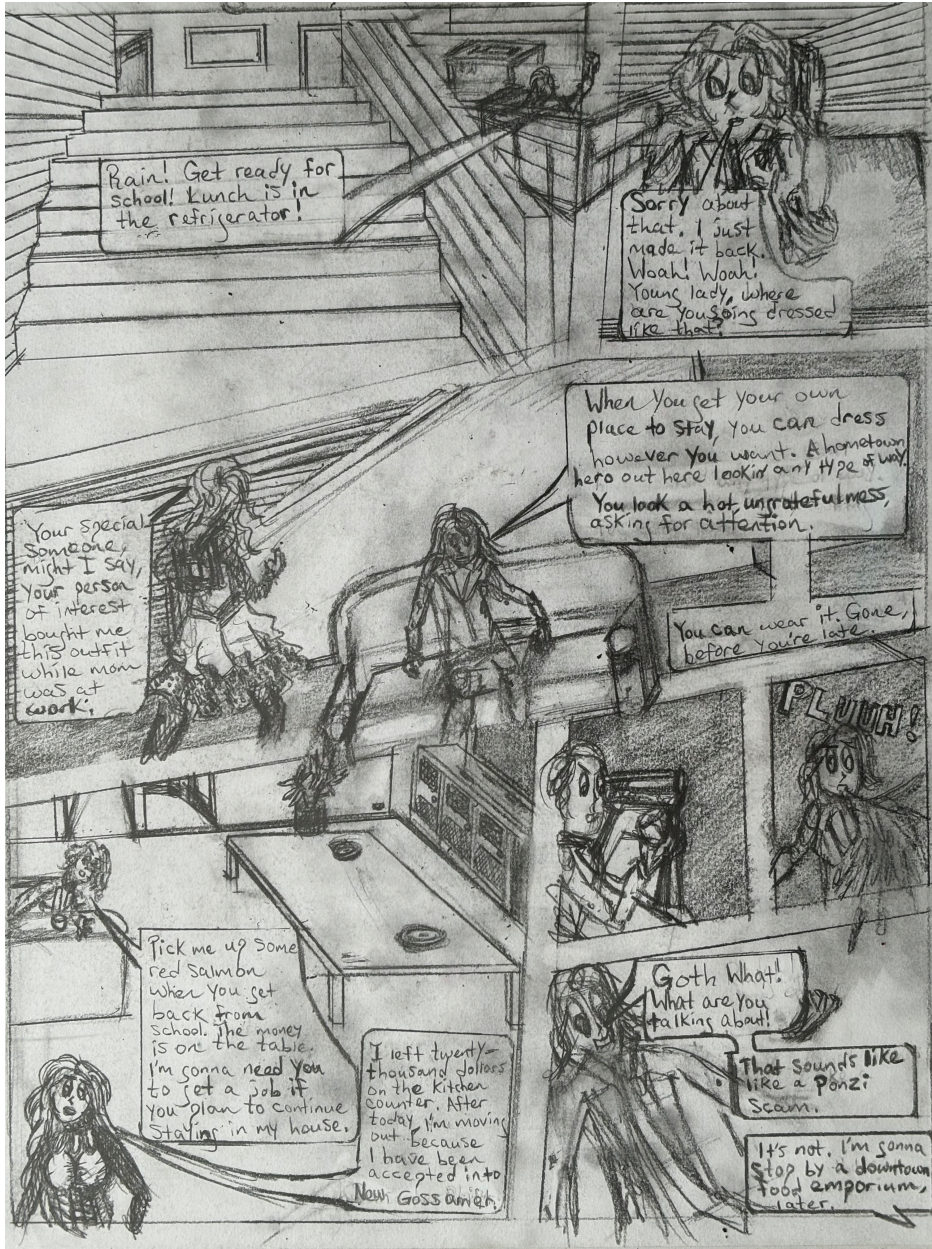

I'm not asking for charitable donations because I don't need any. Your moms and dads already know my accolades because I directed some of their favorite fantasy movies and now I'm here to direct a new chapter of my life.

I've been teasing you all about me owning a town where all goths are welcomed for a decade now. New Gossamer has over two million acres with thousands of apartment complexes and townhouses. Your living expenses will be paid for. Head to your local grocery store, head to a Cabaret, a concert, a poetry club, a library, a graveyard, or relax from the comfort of your own cave.

Decide if you want to live in a house, what school you'll attend and what occupation you can have. If you're under the age of 18, you'll need your parents' signature.

Rain! Get ready for school! Lunch is in the refrigerator.

Sorry about that, I just made it back. Woah! Woah! Young lady, where are you going dressed like that?

When you get your own place to stay, you can dress however you want. A hometown hero out here looking aint type of way. You look a hot, ungrateful mess, asking for attention.

Your special someone, might I say, your person of interest bought me this outfit while mom was at work.

You can wear it. Gone, before you're late.

PLUM!

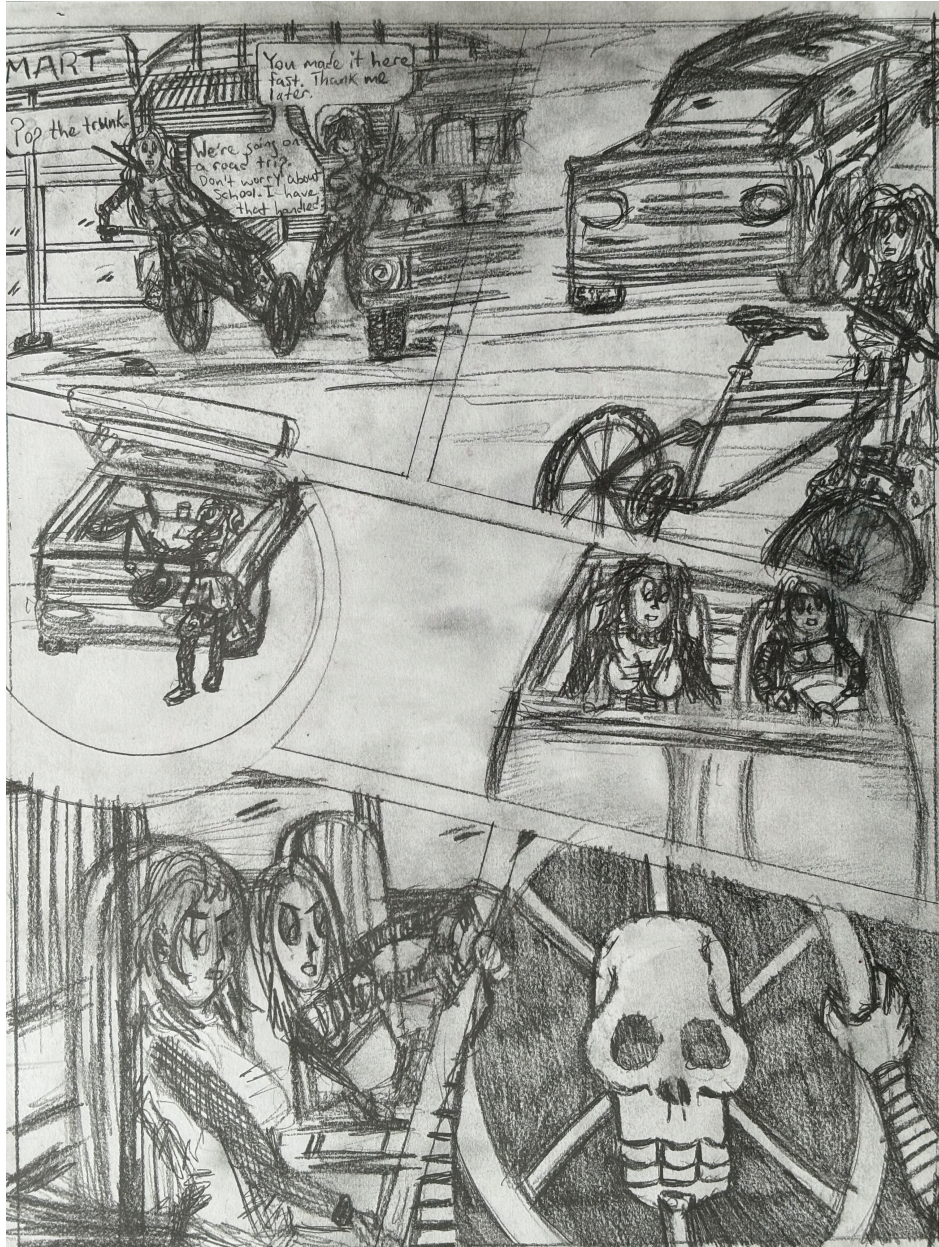

Pick me up some red salmon when you get back from school. The money is on the table. I'm gonna need you to get a job if you plan to continue staying in my house.

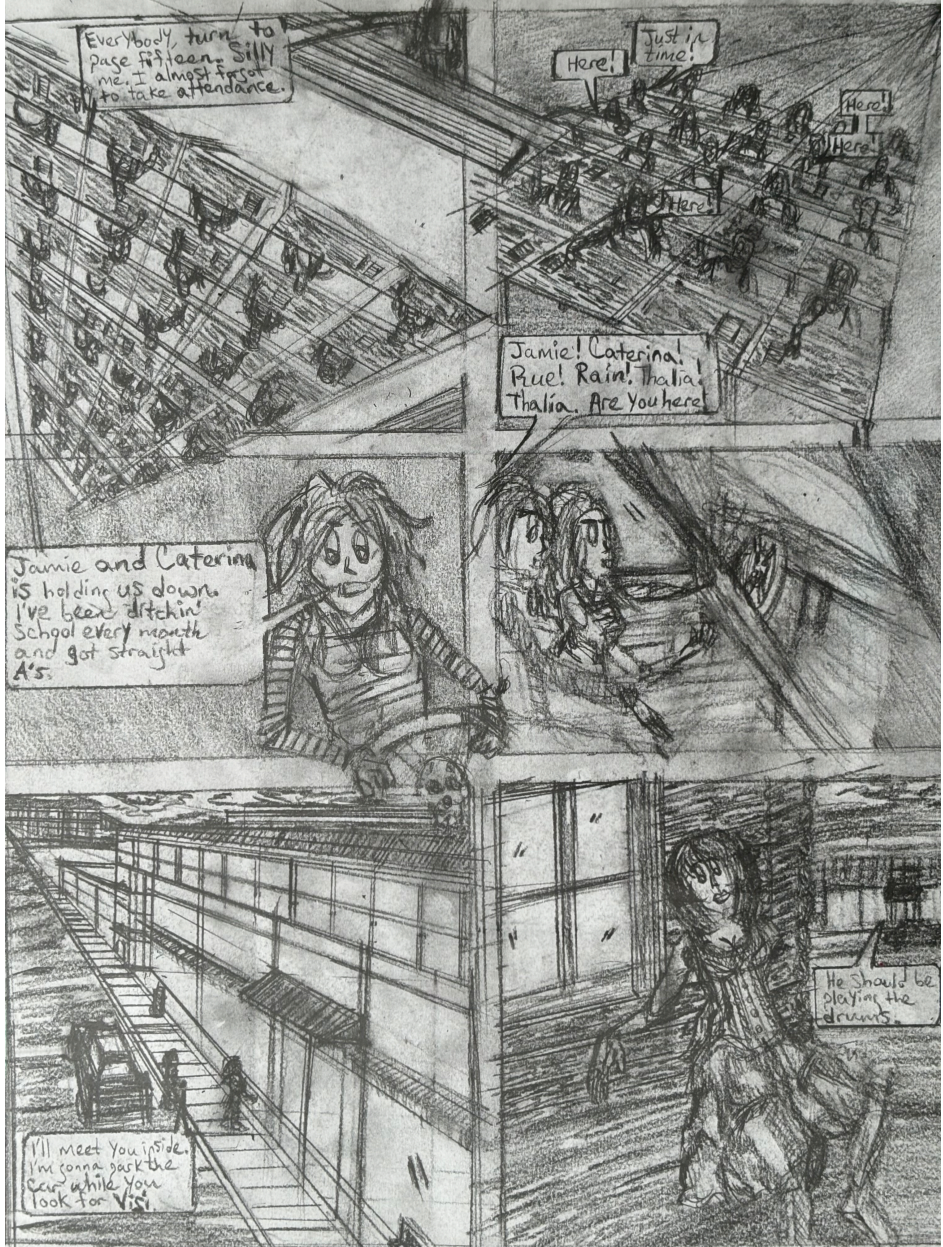

I left twenty-thousand dollars on the kitchen counter. After today I'm moving out because I have been accepted into New Goss Amigh.

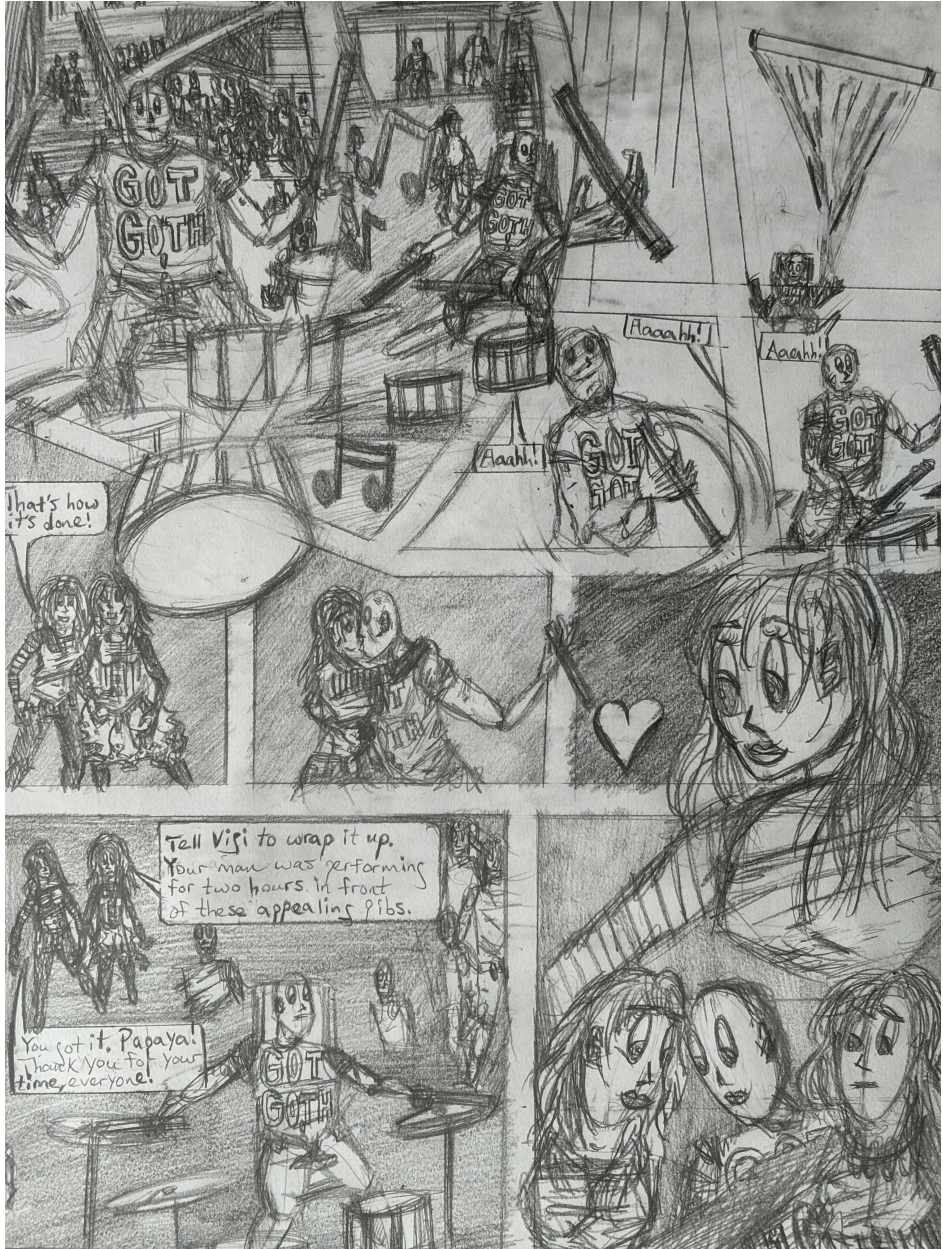

Goth What! What are you talking about!

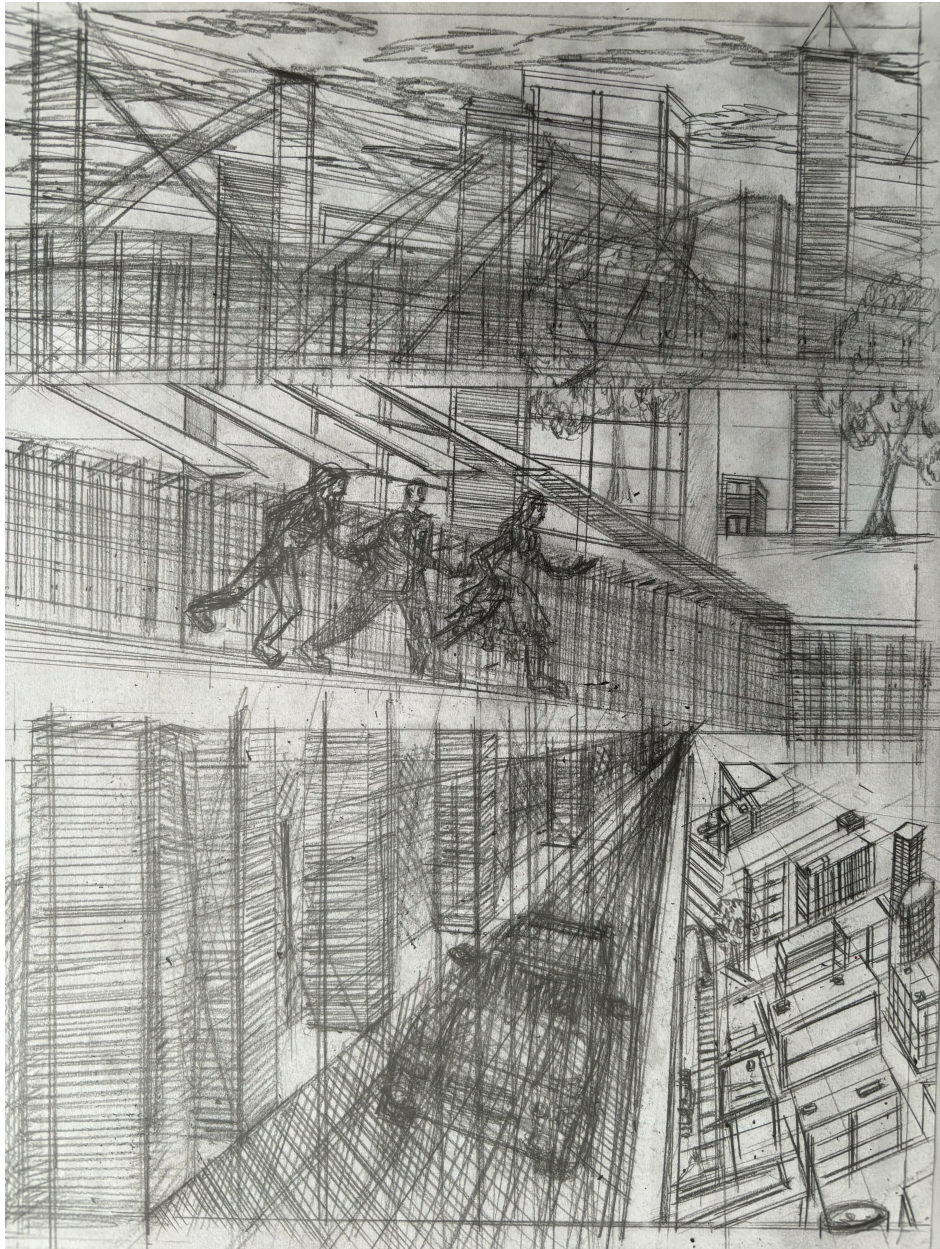

That sounds like a Ponz? Scam.

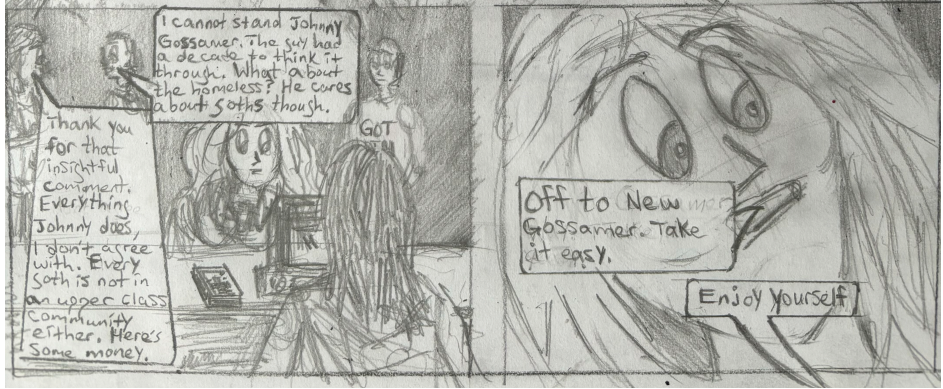

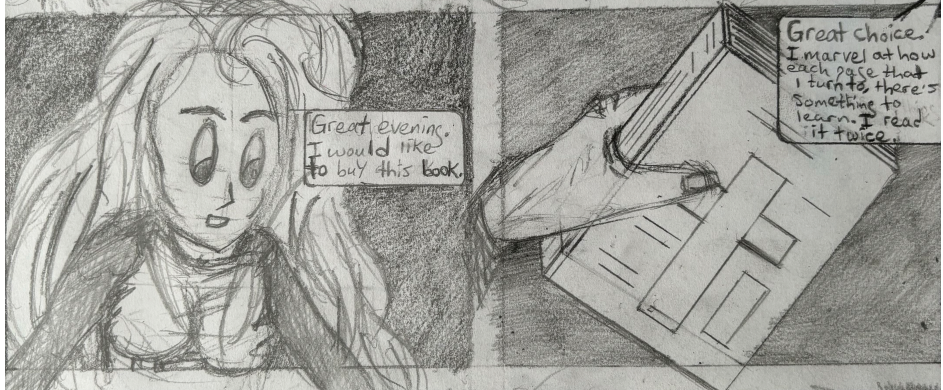

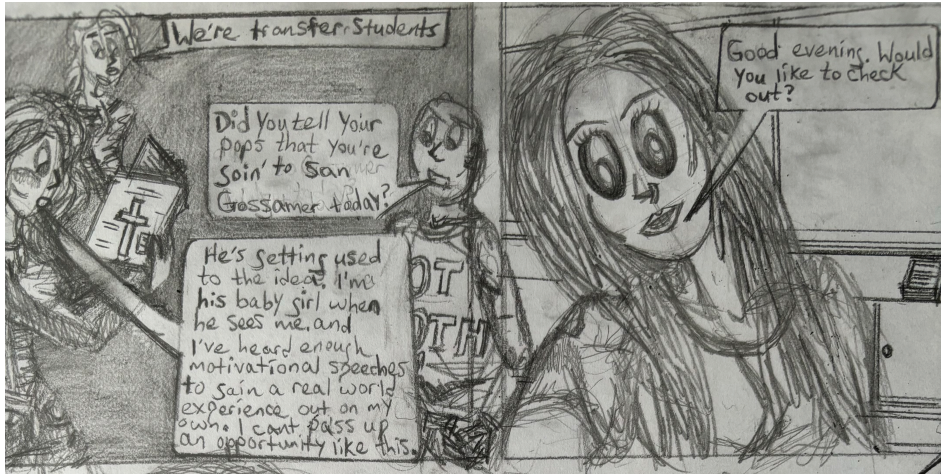

It's not. I'm gonna stop by a downtown food emporium, later.

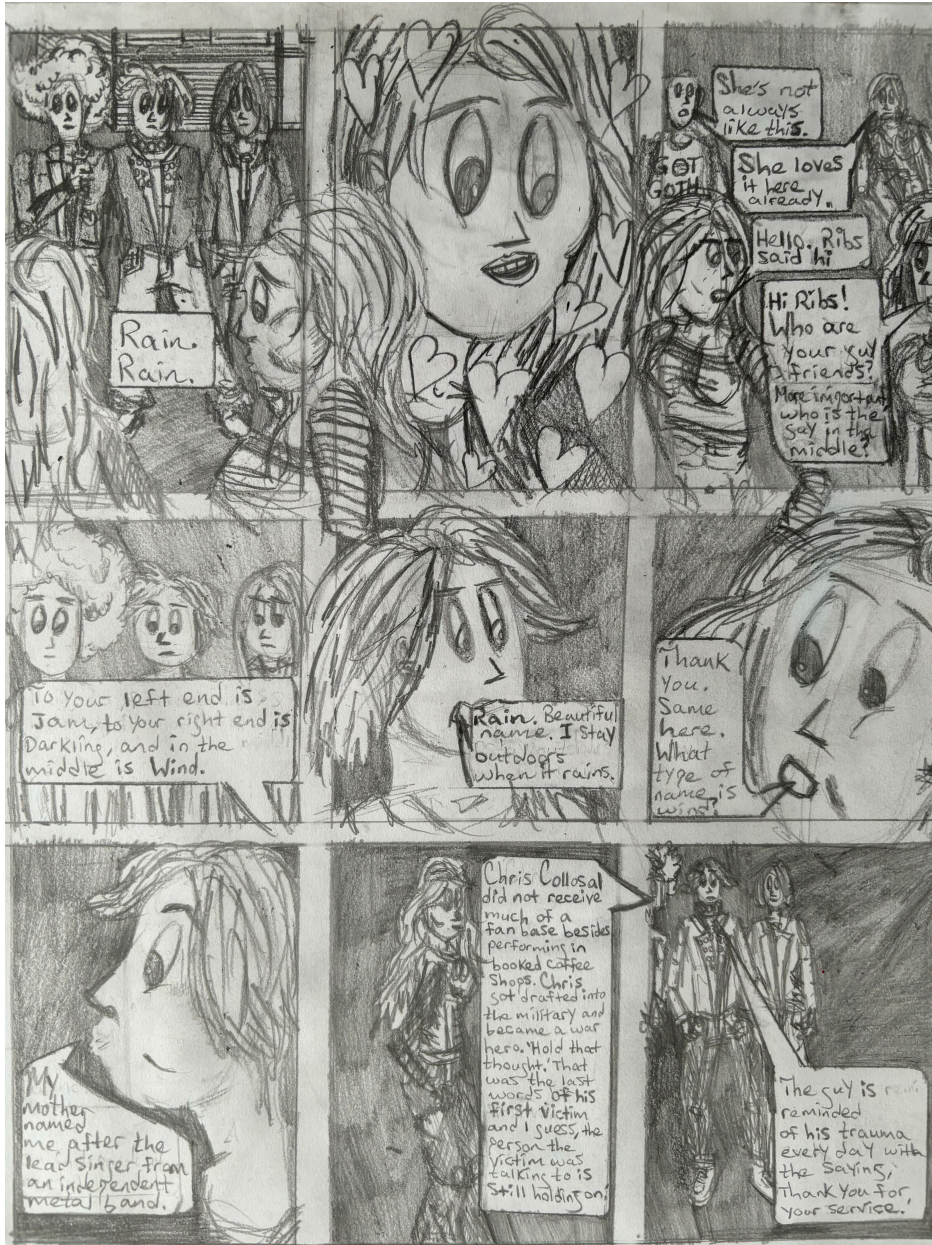

Rain.
Rain.

She's not always like this.

SOT
GOTH

She loves it here already.

Hello, Ribs
said hi

Hi Ribs!
Who are your new friends?
More important
who is the guy in the middle?

To your left end is Jane, to your right end is Darkling, and in the middle is Wind.

Rain, Beautiful
name. I stay outdoors
when it rains.

I thank you.
Same
here.
What type of name is wind?

My mother named me after the lead singer from an independent metal band.

Chris Collosal
did not receive much of a fan base besides performing in booked coffee shops. Chris got drafted into the military and became a war hero. Hold that thought. That was the last words of his first victim
and I guess, the person the victim was talking to is still holding on!

The guy is reminded of his trauma
every day with the saying,
Thank you for your service!

Thank You
Jesus. I don't even own my drivers license
yet and sat
hooked up with the Mad 500 Retro.

This was the first of its kind muscle car to feature an attachable steering wheel along with a Front view, back view, side view, and panoramic view on two screens on a bonnet.

I have a toy just like that in my garage.

Ribs! How long were you standing there?

Long enough to hear everything.
I just wanted to get acquainted with my new neighbor.

I've seen the video of Johnny Gossamer crashing
this bad boy a month ago. Thanks to the seat belt on the hood, he's still here today.

I have an indoor skate park
in my basement

Jean used to be a knight, then learned to obtain a calm demeanor. He possessed excellent body mobility and reflexes. Once when Jean saw an apple on Pearllette's head, he shot the apple by using a bow and arrow from five hundred miles away.

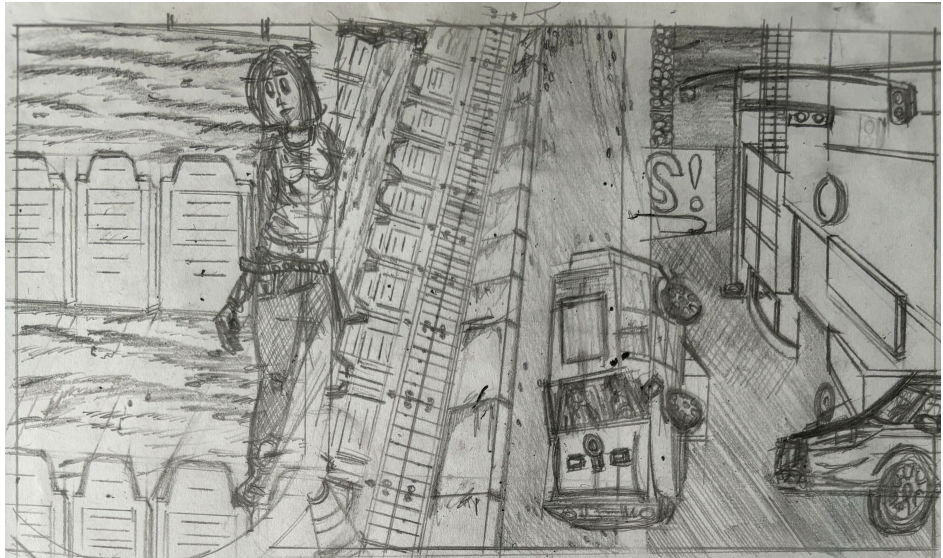

An unimpressed Vessel arrived and pulled out the arrow that was launched in the apple. Vessel bites the apple, tells Pearllette to keep her eyes open and launches the arrow with enough speed and preciseness the point went through Pearllette's right contact lens that she was wearing without damaging the actual eye. Vessel was a show off.

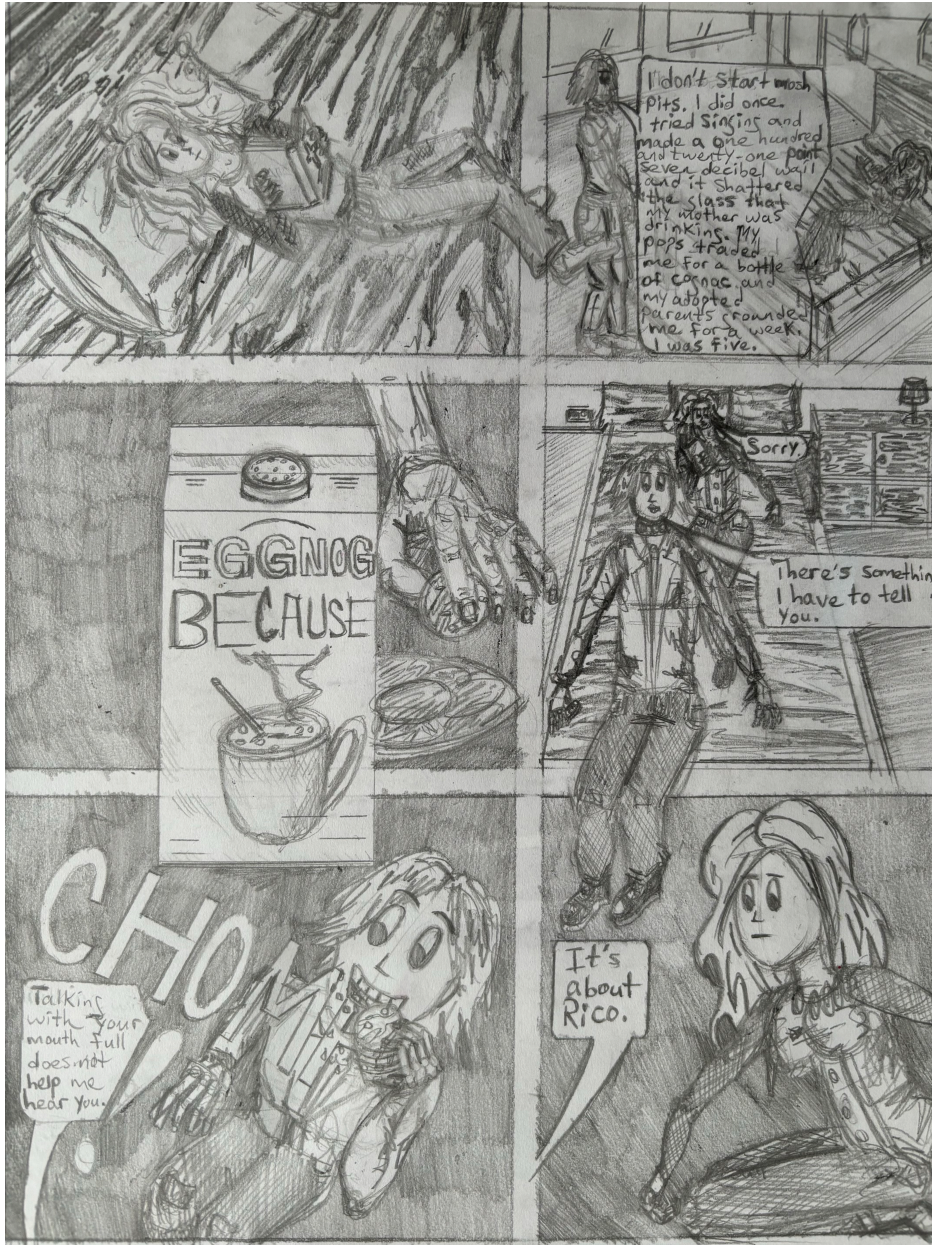

My shoulders are killing me. I'm so used to sleeping on my sides, I injured my rotator cuffs. I don't want to change the posture of my sleeping habits.

Had I known that Wind was in the drove the same bank robbers that I caught to the scene of the crime, things would be different.

He talked about turning himself in after spending the day with me, but Rico remembers how I look,

WOW!

Really?

There's no police in New Gossamer. That means, anything goes.

I'm on my way. Make that ten minutes. I'm still on North, Emo Show Drive.

Document b-e-e forty-two.

Page forty-two of two hundred. Johnny Gossamer has so much money, he bought the police, so that they'll never be in New Gossamer.
